India and TCS Partner with IBM to Boost Quantum Computing Ecosystem

IBM and Tata Consultancy Services (TCS) have entered into a groundbreaking collaboration to advance India's quantum computing industry.

This initiative is part of the development of the Quantum Valley Tech Park in Amaravati, Andhra Pradesh.

The tech park will feature an IBM Quantum System Two, equipped with a 156-qubit Heron quantum processor, envisioned to be the largest quantum computer in India.

The partnership aims to foster quantum research, innovation, and applications that will address complex challenges in India and globally.

The collaboration supports India's aim to become a global leader in quantum technology.

TCS will enable access to IBM's cloud-based quantum computers for local researchers, scientists, and developers.

TCS will develop quantum applications across sectors like life sciences, energy optimization, cryptography, and more.

The initiative will create high-end jobs, attract top talent, and bring global investments to the region.

BANKING

India Post Joins Forces with SBI Mutual Fund

Department of Posts (DoP) partners with SBI Funds Management Limited (SBIFM) to simplify the customer on-boarding process for mutual fund investors.

The partnership is formalized through a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) aimed at leveraging India Post's extensive network for doorstep KYC verification services for SBI Mutual Fund investors.

The collaboration ensures that investors from any location can easily complete the KYC process through India Post's vast infrastructure.

The partnership supports the Government of India's Jan Nivesh initiative, which aims to increase financial inclusion and encourage greater participation in India's capital markets.

India Post's role in facilitating KYC verifications has been proven through successful collaborations with other mutual fund companies, including UTI Mutual Fund and SUUTI (Securities and Exchange Board of India's public fund).

India Post has handled over 5 lakh KYC verifications in a short period, demonstrating its capability to manage high-volume operations with precision, security, and efficiency.

RANKS, INDICES & REPORTS

QS Executive MBA Rankings 2025

Indian Institute of Management (IIM) Bangalore has been acknowledged as the top business school among Indian institutions in the QS Executive MBA Rankings 2025.

However, the institute's global ranking has dropped to 50 from 41 last year.

The rankings evaluate 233 top executive MBA programs globally, with seven Indian institutions making the list, including both IIMs and private institutions like the Indian School of Business (ISB).

University of Oxford, Said Business School secured top positions.

IIM Bangalore scored 87.1 on the "career outcomes" metric, ranking in the top 25 globally.

India is represented by seven schools in this year's rankings, an increase from three institutions in 2022 and 2023.

AWARDS & PRIZES

Major Dhyan Chand Khel Ratna Award

Satwiksairaj Rankireddy and Chirag Shetty, who secured the 1 rank in the Badminton World Federation (BWF) rankings in 2023 and clinched the Asian Games gold in Hangzhou, were awarded the Major Dhyan Chand Khel Ratna Award by Dr. Mansukh Mandaviya, Union Minister of Youth Affairs and Sports, in New Delhi.

They were initially shortlisted for the award in 2023 but couldn't receive it due to tournament commitments.

The pair highlighted the support from various government initiatives, such as Khelo India and TOPS, which aided their progress.

The pair made it to the podium at the Malaysia Open and India Open in January 2024. Their next tournaments are the Singapore Open and the Indonesia Open.
