NSE Agrees to Pay ₹40.35 Crore to Settle Charges with SEBI

The National Stock Exchange (NSE) has agreed to pay ₹40.35 crore to settle charges with Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI).

The charges are for indirectly sharing sensitive, unpublished information with external parties.

The case involves the leak of confidential company announcements before they were made public.

Between February 2021 and March 2022, NSE allowed sensitive data to be shared with a third-party vendor and its subsidiary, NSE Data & Analytics (NDAL), without a formal agreement.

NDAL further disseminated the data to its clients, which violated insider trading rules under SEBI regulations.

The settlement ends SEBI's regulatory proceedings against NSE without admission of guilt.

The case highlighted governance lapses at one of India's most influential market institutions.

RBI Forms 30-Member Team to Overhaul and Eliminate Outdated Regulations

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has established a 30-member Regulatory Review Cell (RRC) as part of its regulatory reform and modernization drive.

The RRC's main role is to evaluate existing financial regulations, identify redundant or obsolete provisions, and sunset outdated rules.

The goal is to simplify compliance, reduce operational friction, and enhance systemic resilience.

RBI currently has around 8,000 regulations, circulars, master directions, and notifications, out of which about 5,000 are obsolete or redundant.

The RRC aims to consolidate regulations to about 3,000 active ones for better clarity and efficiency.

In the first phase, RRC identified 33 core subjects for unification and review.

The Cell will assess regulations every 5-7 years to maintain relevance and effectiveness.

Evaluation criteria include relevance, cost-benefit impact, consumer centricity, and regulatory gaps.

This is an internal initiative, with about 30 RBI officers from various departments working on the review.

The review process is directly overseen by RBI Governor Sanjay Malhotra and Deputy Governors.

The initiative aims to reduce compliance costs, improve transparency, and free management bandwidth for strategic governance.

This initiative is expected to strengthen prudential norms and close regulatory blind spots.

ICICI Bank to Levy UPI Transaction Fees on Payment Aggregators Starting August 1, 2025

ICICI Bank will start imposing transaction handling charges on merchant UPI transactions processed via Payment Aggregators (PAs) from August 1, 2025.

This move follows similar steps taken by Yes Bank and Axis Bank in recent months.

The charges depend on the PA's escrow account arrangement with ICICI Bank:

If the PA maintains an escrow account with ICICI Bank, a fee of 2 basis points (bps) per transaction will be charged, capped at ₹6.

If the PA does not maintain an escrow account with the bank, the charge increases to 4 basis points (bps), capped at ₹10 per transaction.

Transactions settled directly into an ICICI Bank merchant account will be exempt from these charges.

The move reflects a growing trend among private sector banks to recover UPI processing costs through custom fee structures.

While government policy mandates zero Merchant Discount Rate (MDR) for UPI payments to encourage digital adoption, it does not prohibit banks from charging service fees to intermediaries like PAs.
