India Launches Cities Coalition for Circularity (C-3)

India has launched the Cities Coalition for Circularity (C-3) on March 3, 2025, marking a major step towards sustainable urban development.

This multi-national alliance aims to promote city-to-city collaboration, knowledge-sharing, and private sector partnerships to enhance waste management and resource efficiency.

The initiative aligns with India's Pro-Planet People (P-3) approach, focusing on the 3R principles (Reduce, Reuse, Recycle) and circular economy practices.

The objective is to strengthen urban sustainability by fostering collaboration between cities, policymakers, industry leaders, and development partners.

The coalition will bring together multiple nations to share knowledge and best practices in circular economy principles.

West Bengal to Deploy AI in Kanyashree Scheme by International Women's Day

The West Bengal government is planning to leverage AI in its flagship Kanyashree program aimed at reducing drop outs among girls in schools.

On the occasion of International Women's Day (March 8), this initiative is being planned to counter problems emerging from applicants making mistakes in submitting long application forms online.

Currently each applicant has to upload 30-35 information details on the portal including name, address, bank account among others.

Inadvertently mistakes crop up including wrong bank accounts and IFSC codes as well as even 2 girls ending up with the same account numbers.

These issues often lead to delay in disbursement of the amount under Kanyashree.

Under Kanyashree 1 part of the scheme, all girls studying between 13 to 18 years of age get Rs 1000 as stipend yearly if she does not get married.

If she continues studies after 18 without getting married, she gets a onetime stipend of Rs 25000.

Since every year, more than 1 lakh girls enrol for this scheme under the Women and Child Welfare

Department, more mistakes cropping up was often leading to time delays.

Nepal Passes E-Commerce Bill To Regulate Online Trade

Nepal's Parliament passed the Electronic Commerce Bill, giving confidence to consumers and creating a legal framework for regulating the country's online trade.

The bill proposes fines ranging from three lakh Nepali rupees to five lakh Nepali rupees, jail terms of three years, or both, depending on the severity of the cases.

The government of Nepal moved to enact the bill decades after e-commerce began in the Himalayan Nation.

The draft bill was prepared in 2021 but stalled due to frequent government changes.

The bill was registered in the National Assembly upper house by the then-Industry Minister Ramesh Rijal in July 2023.

According to the amended bill, micro and cottage entrepreneurs can also sell their goods and services using online platforms.

The bill includes a refund policy for buyers if the purchased goods and services do not match the listed details, such as design, trademark, shape or picture, and weight.

According to the bill, e-commerce platforms must be registered in the electronic system of the Department of Commerce, Supplies, and Consumer Protection, and the department will conduct regular inspections to ensure this.

RBI May Have To Infuse ₹1 Lakh Crore By March,2025

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) may have to inject additional ₹1 lakh crore into the banking system by March 2025 to maintain liquidity at an equilibrium level, according to a report by the State Bank of India (SBI) research.

The report highlighted that systemic liquidity remains tight, with a deficit of approximately ₹1.6 lakh crore as of the end of February 2025.

The average liquidity deficit is higher, at around ₹1.95 lakh crore.

The banking system has been facing a severe liquidity crunch in recent months, making it one of the worst liquidity shortages in over a decade.

Liquidity conditions in the banking system have deteriorated significantly over the past few months.

To ease liquidity pressures, the RBI has taken several measures, including conducting variable rate repo (VRR) auctions of different tenors, open market operations (OMOs), and dollar-rupee swap arrangements.

The central bank has also carried out daily VRR auctions since January 16, 2025 to manage short-term liquidity needs.
