Reserve Bank of India Expected to Conduct $5 Billion USD/INR Currency Swap

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) likely conducted the second leg of a $5 billion USD/INR buy/sell swap, aimed at managing surplus system liquidity.

The swap will drain approximately ₹43,000 crore from the banking system, but liquidity will remain above 1% of Net Demand and Time Liabilities (NDTL) – a level the RBI is comfortable with.

System liquidity as on August 3 stood at ₹4.09 lakh crore, indicating a high surplus.

In a buy/sell swap, the RBI purchases dollars in the first leg (injecting rupee liquidity), and sells them at maturity (to withdraw liquidity).

The first leg of the swap was conducted in late January with a 6-month maturity ending in early August.

Market sources suggest no full rollover was done due to the ample liquidity, but a partial rollover was likely.

The RBI had earlier conducted a 3-year $10 billion swap and other tools such as Open Market Operations (OMOs) and Variable Rate Repo Auctions to manage liquidity.

Market indicators (like forward premiums and USD/INR rates) suggest that part of the swap was rolled over, showing a calibrated liquidity approach by the RBI.

Forex dealers and treasury heads observed that the impact on USD/INR rates was limited, implying partial delivery and partial rollover.

DEFENCE

Thailand Clears $600 Million Purchase Of Swedish Fighter Aircraft

Thailand has approved the purchase of four Swedish-made Gripen fighter jets on August 5, 2025.

The deal is worth $600 million and involves the Saab JAS 39 Gripens, manufactured in Sweden.

The decision follows a ceasefire with Cambodia after deadly border clashes that left over 40 people dead.

The Royal Thai Air Force used its F-16s during the five-day conflict to strike targets in Cambodia.

The new acquisition is part of Thailand's long-term plan to modernise its combat capabilities.

The Thai Cabinet approved the purchase to strengthen national security and protect sovereignty.

A 10-month review by a procurement committee starting in August 2024 favored the Gripens over US-made F-16s.

Thailand already operates 11 Gripens and several older F-16s from the 1980s.

The country's total defence budget is 200 billion baht (approx. $6 billion), covering the army, navy, and air force.
