India's Seafood Exports Strengthened as European Union Approves 102 Additional Fishery Units

The European Union (EU) has approved 102 additional marine product units from India for exports, making a total of 604 Indian units eligible for EU supply.

This move is expected to boost India's seafood exports to the EU by about 20%, as the EU is the second-largest seafood export destination for India.

In 2023-24, India's seafood exports to the EU stood at $1.1 billion.

The development will help diversify India's shrimp exports, which face a 50% tariff imposed by the US.

In 2024-25, India's shrimp exports were $4.88 billion, accounting for 66% of total seafood exports.

The EU's approval reflects confidence in India's food safety and quality assurance systems.

The newly listed units will boost exports of aquaculture shrimps and Cephalopods (Squid, Cuttlefish, and Octopus) to EU markets.

This development will provide greater opportunities for exporters across Indian coastal states and UTs to strengthen trade relationships with the EU.
