RBI Allows Video KYC To Reactivate Dormant Bank Accounts

The banking sector regulator, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI), has amended the Know Your Customer (KYC) guidelines and allowed banks to conduct video KYC to reactivate dormant (inoperative) bank accounts and unclaimed deposits. To make banking simple and accessible, the RBI on 12 June 2025, issued several guidelines regarding the KYC norms in Banks.

KYC is a set of Customer Identification Processes (CIF) adopted by banks when opening customers' bank accounts.

The customer has to provide valid proof of identity, proof of address, and a recent photograph to the bank.

RBI has notified that Driving License, Aadhaar Card, Passport, Voters' Identity Card, or MGNREGA can be used for both as proof of identity and proof of address.

PAN cards issued by the Income Tax Department are proof of identity only.

For low-risk customers, the banks will allow all transactions and complete the updation of KYC within one year when it is due or by June 30, 2026, whichever is later.

RBI has allowed banks to use their Business Correspondents (BC) to periodically update bank customers' KYC.

Bank accounts (savings or current accounts) become inactive when there has been no customer-induced transaction for the last two years. These accounts are also called dormant accounts.

Reserve Bank of India Stops Daily VRR Auctions

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has discontinued daily Variable Rate Repo (VRR) auctions from June 11, 2025.

The decision was taken due to a liquidity surplus in the banking system estimated between ₹2.75 lakh crore to ₹3 lakh crore.

Daily VRR auctions were introduced on January 16, 2025, to manage short-term liquidity tightness caused by tax outflows and foreign exchange interventions.

Recent daily VRR auctions witnessed very low demand with banks borrowing only ₹3,711 crore on June 9 and ₹3,853 crore on June 10 against a notified amount of ₹25,000 crore.

The move follows the RBI's decision to cut the Cash Reserve Ratio (CRR) by 100 basis points, which will inject about ₹2.5 lakh crore liquidity into the system gradually.

Despite ending daily VRR auctions, RBI will continue to manage liquidity using tools such as 14-day VRR auctions, Open Market Operations (OMO), Standing Deposit Facility (SDF).

Centre Cuts Basic Customs Duty On Key Imported Crude Edible Oils

The Basic Customs Duty (BCD) on crude edible oils such as crude sunflower, soybean, and palm oils has been reduced from 20% to 10%.

This change increases the import duty differential between crude and refined edible oils from 8.75% to 19.25%.

The reduction aims to address the escalating edible oil prices caused by the September 2024 duty hike and rising international market prices.

An advisory was issued to edible oil associations and industry stakeholders to ensure the full benefit of the reduced duty is passed on to consumers.

The 19.25% duty differential encourages domestic refining capacity utilization and reduces imports of refined oils.

Import duty affects the landed cost of edible oils, which impacts domestic prices and inflation.

By lowering duty on crude oils, the government intends to reduce retail prices of edible oils and provide consumer relief.

The policy also promotes domestic refining and ensures fair compensation to farmers.
