World Bank Chief Economist Gill Urges India to Accelerate Structural Reforms

India is better positioned than many of its peers to handle global challenges but needs to accelerate structural reforms.

World Bank Chief Economist Indermit Gill stressed that India must speed up necessary structural changes to address inefficiencies and improve institutional resilience.

Gill highlighted the deceleration of global economic growth, with advanced economies seeing a halving of their potential growth rate over the past two decades.

Emerging markets and developing economies are also facing declining growth rates.

Inefficiencies arise from unproductive firms that hinder the reallocation of resources to more efficient firms.

A significant portion of India's talent pool, particularly women, is underutilised, despite the increasing demand for skilled labor.

India's energy-to-output ratios are high, making it one of the most energy-intensive economies globally.

Gill pointed out that middle-income countries like India are more vulnerable to economic slowdowns compared to low-income or high-income nations.

To transition into a high-income economy, India should prioritize increasing productivity through technology infusion and innovation, particularly by encouraging the growth of large firms, which are often engines of innovation.

4th Edition of 'SAMPARK' ECHS Outreach Initiative for Naval Veterans

The 4th edition of SAMPARK, an outreach initiative by the ECHS (Navy), is aimed at ensuring the well-being of Naval Veterans, Veer Naris, and their families by providing direct communication and healthcare services.

The initiative seeks to provide quality healthcare services and support to Naval Veterans and their families, particularly in remote and inaccessible areas, in line with the Chief of the Naval Staff's (CNS) vision.

The outreach will be conducted by a team of one Officer and five Sailors over a 10-day period, visiting multiple ECHS polyclinics across Maharashtra.

Interactive and immersive sessions will be held at each ECHS polyclinic to directly engage with veterans, address their grievances, and provide guidance on accessing medical services.

SAMPARK 4.0 aims to enhance trust by ensuring veterans feel heard, supported, and cared for, and will assist in resolving any issues faced in accessing healthcare services.

Veterans will be able to register grievances related to healthcare services, and ECHS (Navy) will work to resolve these issues, ensuring adequate care is provided to every veteran.

AWARDS & PRIZES

A.R. Rahman Named Honorary President of Trinity Laban Conservatoire

Two-time Oscar-winning composer R. Rahman has been named the Honorary President of Trinity Laban, the United Kingdom's leading conservatoire for music, musical theatre, and contemporary dance.

His five-year term places him alongside distinguished predecessors like conductor Charles Mackerras and violinist Yehudi Menuhin.

Rahman is working with Trinity Laban to explore incorporating musical theatre into its curriculum, a field he is actively promoting.

His contributions include "Bombay Dreams" with Andrew Lloyd Webber and the "Lord of the Rings" musical.

Trinity Laban will commemorate Rahman's appointment with an Indian music event at Blackheath Halls on March 7, 2025, featuring student performances of Rahman's compositions.

Donald Trump Named Time Magazine's 2024 Person of the Year

Time magazine has named Donald Trump its Person of the Year for 2024, marking the second time the former and now re-elected U.S. President has received the honor.

This recognition celebrates his historic political comeback, his transformative role in American politics, and his impact on the global stage.

On November 5, 2024, Trump won over Vice President Kamala Harris, securing his return to the White House.

Time described this achievement as a "comeback of historic proportions", given the challenges he faced in his post-presidency years.

Trump is credited with driving a once-in-a-generation political realignment, reshaping the American political landscape.

His policies and leadership have had a profound effect on domestic governance and international relations.
